sofun® Umbrella Stand

The sofun® stand brings together function, form and design in one piece. The stand can be used as a side table with a deep seating conversation set or fits perfectly between 2 chaise lounge chairs to offer that much needed shade on the sunny days. But it gets so much better when you're looking to add that punch of colour to your outdoor space the sofun® stand can be planted with the flowers or greens of your choice. At one moment it can be that perfect side table to hold your coffee or cocktail and then the next moment it can be that perfect planter to add some vibrant colour to your patio and all the while it never stops what it does best and that is hold that patio umbrella securely.

The sofun® stand offers ample space for all your needs while not taking up too space overall. The sofun® stand comes with a removable metal centre cross bar, and a molded resin top with one flat side and one side with 2 cup holders and 2 trays. The sofun® stand is blow molded out of resin and comes in one perfect shape.
